In Memory Of

POLICE OFFICER ROBERT H. PERKINS, STAR 16557

All members of the Chicago Police Department are deeply saddened by the tragic and senseless death of Police Officer Robert H. Perkins, Star 16557 of the 3rd District, who was killed in the line of duty.

Officer Perkins sustained a fatal gunshot wound while attempting to arrest a subject for investigation of Burglary, on 7 March 1992. This day will be remembered by the men and women of the Chicago Police Department as a day that another of our outstanding officers paid the supreme sacrifice.

As Superintendent of Police, I urge all members of the Department to join me in uniform in paying respect to our fallen comrade at the wake and funeral services.

Remains will be available for viewing by public starting at 1000 hours on Wednesday, 11 March 1992 at A. A. Rayner and Sons Funeral Home, 318 East 71st Street.
