

Your Journal

Holds the

PRESS
AWARD

"A Model Community Newspaper"

BACK OF THE YARDS

JOURNAL

Serving the Southwest Side

McKINLEY PARK — TOWN OF LAKE — BRIDGEPORT
GAGE PARK — CANARYVILLE — SOUTH BRIGHTON PARK

Office: 4625 S. Ashland ave.

YA 7-7200

Guaranteed
Circulation:
29,000

Reaching over 100,000 readers

Price 10 Cents

VOL. 48, NO. 41

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1980

Circulation Dept.: YA 7-7202

Friends honor Conlisk

Former Police Superintendent James B. Conlisk, who retired earlier in the year, was honored at a surprise birthday-retirement luncheon on Oct. 2 in the Frank Lloyd Wright Room of the Midland Hotel, 172 W. Adams.

Conlisk was presented with the stars he wore while with the Police Dept. He and his wife also received wrist watches as tokens of appreciation.

Conlisk is new chief of investigations for Bally Mfg. Co. in association with another former police superintendent, James M. Rochford, who is vice president of

JAMES CONLISK

Corporate Security for Bally.

Among the 150 friends and guests who attended the luncheon were the following:

John Madigan (master of ceremonies), James M. Rochford, Sherrif Richard Elrod, James O'Grady.

General Franklin Kreml, Samuel Nolan, Alderman Edward Burke, Marshall Korshak, Frank Sullivan.

James Ahern, Dr. James P. Carroll, George Dunne, Judge Richard Curry, Francis Degnan, Tony De Santis.

Senator Richard M. Daley, Thomas Keane, Donald McKay, Thomas Meagher, Judge Arthur Dunne.

Michael Meegan, Ralph Scheu, Michael Spiotto, James Killackey, Harry Semrow.