Message: Sergeant Michael Chuchro #877 will function as the Chicago Police Department Historian. The Historian is charged by the Superintendent to focus on the continuous and methodical research of past events, personnel and equipment related to the Chicago Police Department in general and fallen officers by gathering and reviewing Department records, as appropriate, in furtherance of this mission. These duties are in addition to Sgt. Chuchro's current assignment. The position of Chicago Police Department Historian will continue to be coordinated through the Office of Communications Unit #102. Any historical information or inquiries should be directed to the Office of Communications Unit #102, attention Chicago Police Historian.
