

INCIDENT REPORTING GUIDE / CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT

Name:

A. PURPOSE OF THE INCIDENT REPORTING GUIDE

The Incident Reporting Guide will be used to determine:

1. The type of report required to record an incident or the Miscellaneous Incident Procedure to be followed;
2. The proper offense classification of an incident on a case report; and
3. The proper related state statute or city ordinance to cite on an Arrest Report (CPD-11.420).

B. HOW TO USE THE INCIDENT REPORTING GUIDE COLUMNS

1. INCIDENT - This column lists, in alphabetical order, brief descriptions of various situations comprising violations of Illinois Compiled Statutes, violations of the Municipal Code of Chicago, and selected non-criminal incidents.
2. REPORT TO BE USED - This column indicates the specific report form to be completed when documenting each of the various incidents listed.
3. OFFENSE/INCIDENT CLASSIFICATION/PRIMARY BOX - This column indicates which entry is to be made in the "Primary Offense" box on the appropriate case report.
4. OFFENSE/INCIDENT CLASSIFICATION /SECONDARY BOX - This column indicates which entry is to be made in the "Secondary Offense" box on the appropriate case report.
5. OFFENSE CODE - This column indicates the I-UCR offense code to be used when applicable.
6. REFERENCE - This column indicates the statute or ordinance violated:
  - a. Illinois Compiled Statutes are indicated by "ILCS."
  - b. Municipal Code of Chicago Ordinances are indicated by "MCC."

C. DEFINITIONS

1. Assault incidents, without exception, involve the use of force and do not involve any actual contact between the victim and offender. All unsuccessful attempts at force by an offender that do not involve a deadly weapon (e.g. attempting to punch someone or throwing a stone at another person but no one is actually struck) should be classified as an assault. All successful attempts at force by an offender that do involve a deadly weapon another (e.g. shooting a firearm at person but no one is actually struck) should be classified as an aggravated assault.

2. Battery incidents, involve only those cases when actual physical contact is made between the victim and offender. In selecting the proper battery classification, members should be aware of three possible aggravating factors:

1. The victim suffered great bodily harm (serious injury); or
2. The offender used a dangerous weapon capable of causing death or great bodily harm AND there was contact made with the victim during the victim during the attack; or
3. There was contact made with the victim during the attack (including minor contact or injury) AND the victim was a police officer or other, protected employee.

Consistent with Uniform Crime Reporting standards, only those aggravated batteries involving great bodily harm (serious injury) or the offender's use of a dangerous weapon capable of causing death or great bodily harm are statistical considered Index Crimes for purposes.

D. NOTES

1. ATTEMPT, SOLICITATION, CONSPIRACY - When recording an arrest for Solicitation (720 ILCS 5/8-1), Conspiracy (5/8-2), or Attempt (5/8-4), note in the paper Arrest Report narrative the underlying ILCS statute that was attempted or otherwise involved in the incident. This will enable accurate entry of the related charges into CHRIS during the booking process. [For example, with an arrest for "Attempt Burglary," on the Arrest Report: enter "720 ILCS 5/8-4 (Attempt)" as the charge and record "720 ILCS 5/19-1-a (Burglary)" on the first line of the report narrative.]
2. INDEX CRIMES - IUCR Codes for the Index Crimes are listed by category as follows:

INDEX CATEGORY	RELATED IUCR CODES
Homicide	0110, 0130
Criminal Sexual Assault	02XX and 1753, 1754
Robbery	03XX
Aggravated Assault and Aggravated Battery	041A, 041B, 0420, 0430, 0440, 045X, 046X, 0479, 048X, 049X, 051A, 051B, 0520, 0530, 0545, 055X, 0560
Burglary	06XX
