

---

Officer Frank Rusk of the Harrison Street Station died from the effects of a bullet wound yesterday afternoon at the Michael Reese Hospital. Rusk was shot in a Fourth avenue saloon about a month ago by William Coker, a colored man. The bullet lodged under the kneecap and blood poisoning set in. Coker is locked up at the armory and will be arraigned this morning on the charge of murder.