

RIOT GRAND JURY VOTES TO INDICT 13 WHITE MEN

Action Swells the Number of True Bills to Sixty-seven.

Indictments voted by the grand jury yesterday charging thirteen white men with assault to kill and murder, arson, conspiracy, etc., will be returned before Judge Crowe in the Criminal court this morning. They grow out of the recent race rioting, which by tonight will have resulted in charges against sixty-seven persons, seventeen whites and fifty blacks.

Named in New Indictments.

Those to be named in the indictments this morning and the charges against them are as follows:

MICHAEL DREW, GEORGE SOUTHWICK, GEORGE MURPHY, EDWIN NEYLON, and WILLIAM BAER, white, charged with conspiracy, carrying concealed weapons, and assault to kill Everett Martin, colored, at Sixty-ninth and Halsted streets, July 29.

HARRY SHERLOCK, CARL JOHNSON, FRED BRISSA, and WILLIAM GEARY, charged with arson and conspiracy in connection with the burning of the home of John Cappoge, colored, of 5432 South La Salle street on July 30.

GEORGE STAUBER, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Eugene Williams, colored, at the Twenty-ninth street beach on July 29.

CLARENCE JONES, white, charged with assault to kill Frank King, colored, in a restaurant at Wabash avenue and Adams street, July 29.

JOSEPH QUATTROCHI, white, charged with assault to kill Dalsy Richardson, colored, of 1829 West Lake street, in front of 908 Laffin street on July 29.

JOHN SHEEHAN, white, charged with assault to kill William Stewart, colored porter, in Heffernan's saloon at 4641 South Halsted street on Aug. 2.

Forty More Indicted.

Forty other persons, four of them white, were named in indictments returned before Judge Crowe yesterday morning on charges ranging from carrying concealed weapons to assault to murder.

The white men, the first to be indicted in the investigation, are Charles Schuh, Stanley Holy, alias Murphy, Frank Proszowski, alias Kapula, and Frank Melewic. They are charged with assaulting with intent to kill Federico Gonzales, a Mexican, whom they had mistaken for a Negro. The assault occurred July 30 at West Forty-seventh and South Halsted streets.

The following colored were indicted for assault to murder:

Alfred Kirk, William Brown, Alonzo Estling, Homer Ware, Arthur Alexander, and Joseph Sanders. Sanders has three charges of assault to murder and one of carrying concealed weapons against him. Several other colored men were charged with conspiracy to riot.

All of those indicted yesterday will be arraigned for pleading next Tuesday before Judge Crowe. At that time the dates of their trials will be set.

EIGHT YEAR OLD BOY MISSING.

Eight year old James McMahon strayed from his home at 6928 Stewart avenue early yesterday morning, and his parents have not seen him since. He was dressed in khaki knickerbockers, a brown and white striped shirt, black stockings, and brown shoes. He has light hair and blue eyes.
