

COLLINS TO MAKE STEGE ASSISTANT DETECTIVE CHIEF

Erection of 5 New Police Stations Recommended.

Capt. John Stege, now in charge of squads at the detective bureau, will be promoted to assistant chief of detectives shortly, Chief of Police Morgan A. Collins announced last night. The post will be a new one.

In addition, Chief Collins will create two new posts at the bureau for police captains, who will supervise squads. In the past Stege has been the only captain assigned to this duty.

Capt. Stege's Rise Rapid.

Capt. Stege came to the detective bureau a year ago as a sergeant. He was immediately raised to the rank of lieutenant and was promoted to a captaincy in the police examinations about four months ago.

The reorganization of the bureau follows the chief's request for eight new captains.

Their appointment is provided in the 1926 budget. One captain will be placed in charge of all police flivvers one will be assigned to the motor vehicle division, one to the efficiency division, one to South Chicago and one to the Cottage Grove station.

Urge 5 New Police Stations.

Erection of five new police stations was recommended yesterday by the police committee. The stations, each to cost approximately $75,000, will be erected from an unexpended bond fund of $400,000, kept for that purpose. Their locations follow:

Bryn Mawr and Ashland avenues to replace Summerdale station; Crawford and Lawrence avenues; Jefferson park, near Lawrence and Milwaukee avenues, to replace present station; Deering district, near 35th and Morgan streets, to replace present station; Englewood, 62d and Green streets, to replace old Englewood station.

All the new stations will be erected on city owned property. If approved by the council, they will be ready this summer.

Dry Sleuths Ferret Out Stills in Linoleum Store

Two stills of 100 gallon capacity each, used to extract poisonous substances from wood alcohol, were seized by prohibition agents yesterday in building at 7630 West Madison street owned by Sam Levy.

Tony Bush, in charge of the place was arrested. Levy used the store also for selling lamps and linoleum, it was said.
