

POLICE PUT FIRST TWO WAY RADIO CAR INTO SERVICE

15 More Will Be Placed in Operation This Week.

BY LARRY WOLFE.

The first two-way radio car equipped with the new radio set and the mobile microphone, placed into service today, the new police department car, and the first car to be equipped with the new radio set.

The car, which was driven by Police Officer James J. Kelly, was placed into service today. The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set.

The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set. The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set.

How the New Car Works.

The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set. The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set.

The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set. The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set.

How the Car Works.

The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set. The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set.

The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set. The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set.

The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set. The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set.

How the Car Works.

The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set. The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set.

The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set. The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set.

The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set. The car is equipped with a mobile microphone and a two-way radio set.

Police Test First Two Way Radio

(There is following column.)

Paul W. Stewart, radio operator of the police department, talks to headquarters in a report of covering and forwarding operation in a patrol car.

Paul W. Stewart, radio operator of the police department, examines the transmitter.