

Name J. B. Conlisk Jr.

Deputy Chief of Traffic

Lt. James B. Conlisk Jr. was named deputy chief of traffic yesterday by Police Commissioner O'Connor. He replaces Lt. Leonard McPhail, who died Feb. 25.

His father, James B. Conlisk Sr., administrative assistant to O'Connor, was notified of the appointment at Mount Sinai hospital, where he is under treatment for a hip fracture.

Conlisk Jr., 40, of 8314 S. Seeley av., married and father of two sons, has been a policeman since Feb. 11, 1946. He has been assigned to traffic since promoted to sergeant in 1952. He was promoted to lieutenant April 1, 1956. He is a World War II army veteran.

Equal Responsibility

He will have equal responsibility with Capt. Edward Saturnas, also a deputy chief of traffic. Two brothers of Conlisk Jr. are detectives. John is assigned to the stolen auto section and William to the confidence detail.

The promotion meant a pay increase from $6,360 to $9,744 for Conlisk Jr.

O'Connor also transferred four lieutenants, four sergeants, eight detectives, and 71 patrolmen. Twelve patrolmen were promoted to detectives and three detectives were demoted to patrolman.

Transfers Are Listed

Lieutenants transferred:

Timothy Donovan, Morgan Park to East Side; James Black, traffic to Morgan Park; Thomas Nolan, East Side to Burnside, and Orin Ross, Burnside to East Side.

Sergeants transferred:

Frank Kalivoda, detective bureau to headquarters; John Malloy, Fillmore st. to New City; Eugene Anderson, Austin to Warren av. and Robert Howard, Chicago Lawn to Englewood.

Patrolmen promoted to detective:

Edward Cusack, Brighton Park; Henry McKinley, Marquette; Orville Andersen, Sheffield av.; Bruce Jaffray, Hyde Park; Donald Moriarity, Hyde Park; Jesse Glass, Wabash av. Andrew Downey, Wabash av.; Frank Tucker, traffic; John Ryan, Brighton Park; Louis Mufale, Chicago av.; Richard Thornley, Summerdale, and Clifton Martin, Wabash av.

The transfers were effective at 12:01 a. m. today. They were described by O'Connor as routine.

Conlisk Named Traffic Deputy

Police Lt. James Conlisk Jr., 40, today was named deputy chief of traffic for field services by Commissioner O'Connor. He fills a vacancy caused by the death last Feb. 25 of Lt. Lawrence McPhail.

A graduate of Northwestern University's Traffic Institute, Lt. Conlisk is a former technical sergeant in the Army Air Force. He has been a policeman 12 years. He was made a sergeant in 1952 and a lieutenant in 1956.

Conlisk and his family live at 8314 Seeley av. His father, 67, is a retired police captain now serving as administrative assistant to Commissioner O'Connor. Two brothers, William and John are police detectives.

The promotion advances Lt. Conlisk's pay from $6,360 to $9,744 a year.
