
POLICE CADET IS WOUNDED IN AUSTIN STATION

Police Cadet Wayne Hovland, 18, of 2143 Humboldt blvd., accidentally shot himself yesterday while examining a policeman's revolver in the basement locker room of the Austin station, 5327 Chicago av.

He said he picked up the .38 caliber revolver of Policeman Anthony Keslinke when Keslinke was summoned to the first floor to take a telephone call. He said he cocked the gun and whirled the cylinder, and it discharged.

Hovland was struck in the right side of the abdomen. The bullet lodged in his back. The slug was removed at St. Anne's hospital, where the youth was reported in good condition.
