THANK YOU!

I want to thank everyone who participated in the St. Jude Memorial March and Service this year.

We all know the St. Jude march is much more than a police parade. Each year, thousands of sworn and civilian members assemble for this tribute to our deceased members and to the Gold Star Families. Chicago Police Department retirees, members of the Police Board, Presidents of our Police Organizations, other police agencies, our community youth groups and our Gold Star Families join us in this annual tradition.

As seemingly endless rows of our members filed past the reviewing stand, I felt a tremendous sense of pride. I was soon overwhelmed by the extraordinary show of support for this year's event. Your strong demonstration of support is a testament to our deep respect for this Department's honored tradition of service and sacrifice. It also makes a strong statement to everyone that the Chicago Police Department is a caring community of law enforcement professionals.

On behalf of the entire command staff, thank you for your outstanding show of support at this year's St. Jude Memorial March and Service.

Terry G. Hillard
Superintendent of Police
