

CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT

PAX 501

Terry G. Hillard, Superintendent of Police

VOLUME 02

11 March 2002

NUMBER 1

Today, on the six month anniversary of the horrific 9-11 attacks, we acknowledge our fellow officers in New York who lost their lives in the line of duty. In remembrance, many of you donated to the CPD/NYPD Memorial Fund. Your cumulative show of unity, respect and grief is displayed today as many of you wear the official shirt of the fund. Additionally, First Deputy Superintendent John Thomas will deliver to the fallen officers families and NYPD Commissioner Ray Kelly the $262,000 raised by your generous benevolence. New York is extremely grateful for our Department's combined appeal, but also for the many individual acts of kindness displayed by our members over these last six months. I am extremely proud of each of you, for both your kindness toward the NYPD and your performance here in our city. Whether you contributed time, money or prayer, know that your assistance has greatly contributed to the healing process of the NYPD. Thank you for your continued professionalism and humanitarianism. May we safely stay united as we continue to serve and protect the public.
