CHICAGO POLICE EXAMINATION

As Acting Superintendent of the Chicago Police Department, I would like to take this time to thank all of you for continued support, dedication and teamwork during this transition period.

I would also like to address something very meaningful to me. As I undertake the position of Superintendent of Police, I am very passionate about making Chicago the safest big city in the United States. I also have vowed to be a superintendent for all the citizens, in every neighborhood in the City of Chicago. One way to accomplish this goal, is to ensure the Chicago Police Department reflects the diversity of the city it serves. Law enforcement is a challenging and rewarding profession that allows us the opportunity to make a positive impact on many people.

With this in mind, I urge each of you to spread the word about the upcoming police examination, which will be held Saturday, November 22, 2003. Applications are available at all Chicago Public Library branches until October 31, 2003. The completed applications will be accepted through Saturday, November 1, 2003, excluding Sunday, at the following locations only:

Daley College, 7500 S. Pulaski Ave, Olive-Harvey College, 10001 S. Woodlawn Ave., Harold Washington College, 30 E. Lake Street and Wilbur Wright College, 4300 Narragansett Ave.

The Chicago Police Department is looking for qualified candidates who represent the city's diverse ethnic and multi-cultural backgrounds. If you know anyone 21 to 39 years old, with at least 60 semester (or 90 quarter) hours of college credit, or who has completed four years of continuous active duty in an armed forces of the United States and is willing to make a difference in the lives of the citizens and communities we serve, please encourage him or her to apply for the police examination.

For more information on the upcoming police examination, visit the Chicago Police Department's web site at www.cityofChicago.org/police.
